

No to Low Power FM Priority:

I currently listen to KLOVE almost exclusively, which uses the nation wide FM translator service currently provided, I feel the potential risk of losing this station due to LPFM is too great. KLOVE is a great benefit to us and our community, it being the only station I know that is completely safe for our young children. Please do not allow this station to go away.